

I would ask that the FCC dismiss the Consumer Bankers Association's attempt to weaken the state of Indiana's no-call list. This is just an attempt to weaken the state's no-call law and give the CBA's members unlimited access to me and my home to make repeated sales calls. Please do not allow this to occur.